Re: Letter of Support for Russian Participation in the 2013 Brown-Mosten International Client Consultation Competition

Dear Professor and Doctor Tarhanov,

This letter is in support of the invitation letter sent by Selene Mize to attend the 2013 Brown-Mosten International Client Consultation Competition (ICCC) to be held in Scotland from April 3-6, 2013.

As Ms. Mize stated, the ICCC brings together law student teams from countries around the world to compete in an exciting and unique format centered on client consultation techniques. The Russian presence at the competition has been important to the ICCC over the past several years. The Russian teams have been very successful and Prof. Salikov has been a model coach and an inspiration to many teams, including the Cambodian teams that I have coached for the past five years.

We look forward to meeting the Russian delegation in Scotland next year.

Best regards,

Steven Austermiller, ICCC Vice-Chair
